City Council Adjourns In Confusion About Revenue

It is virtually impossible to write a story giving an accurate report on the details of the Elba City Council meeting Tuesday night of this week. The meeting was rather routine until about ten minutes after nine when the discussion turned to the need for more revenue to operate the City (i.e. sales tax).

The discussion opened with a motion to put on the additional tax and earmark 10% of it for the hospital and 10% of it for the schools. This motion by Councilman Wayne Sharpless died for lack of a second and from there the action bounced around with motions, amendments and discussions of proper procedure and finally an adjournment without completing the balance of the business on the agenda.

It took Mayor Sawyer's legal two votes to get even an adjournment motion passed at 11:30 p.m.

Councilman Charles Ellis expressed an opinion that the $70,000 deficit could be overcome by cutting back in most departments but he heard arguments that such a cut would curtail services more than the people wanted. He was told that many citizens had told councilmen they wanted the police department to maintain the same high efficiency they presently have. City Clerk Jack Prescott told the council the street department had a stack of backlogged work orders ten or twelve inches high and all needed handling. Judging from motions made and seconded, four members of the council favored the additional tax and Ellis favored trying the cutback first. Apparently the reason the tax wasn't passed was the idea of earmarking part of the revenue for schools and hospitals when no formal request had been made by either.

Once a motion to add the tax was on the floor and was headed to passage, an amendment to earmark parts of it was added by Councilman Ronnie Vaughan and was seconded by Ellis. At that point Councilman Virgil Coleman withdrew the motion. It was later determined that Ellis' idea was to add the amendment, knowing that the majority would not vote in favor of the amended motion. Ellis then offered a lengthy motion mandating a 10% cut in all departments except the fire department. Sharpless at tempted to amend the motion to allow the supervisors of the departments to ignore the cut if he felt it would reduce efficiency. Ellis quickly called for a "point of order" saying that the amendment was not germane to the motion. Before Mayor Sawyer could rule on the issue, Councilman Ben Carpenter made a motion to adjourn and received a quick second. The vote 3-2 against with Ellis, Vaughan and Coleman voting against and Carpenter and Sharpless voting for adjournment. As the councilmen started their discussion again, Mayor Sawyer spoke up and cast his two votes for adjournment and the meeting was over.

Several items of business were left unfinished including ing paying the bills for the month. However, the council is scheduled to meet again next Tuesday night at 6:30. In action before the sales tax discussion, the council heard Fire Chief Lloyd Driggers' report on the operation of the fire department; Mrs. Sue Hogan about operating a recreation center in Elba (the 18 year old age limit); report on a sewer line break in Brookdale and an increase in the fee for stray dogs. A committee was appointed to work on making a shrine and park at the home of the late Charlie Porter who died this month, as probably the last living ex-slave in America. Appointed was Dr. Donald Crook, Marvin McIlwain, Ronnie Vaughan and Virgil Coleman as chairman.

PTA Organized Last Week

A large group of parents and teachers turned out last Thursday evening for the organizational meeting of the PTA for the Elementary and Middle Schools. The meeting was moderated by Fern Cox. The first order of business was to decide if the group wanted one organization for each school or a joint PTA. After opinions were voiced pro and con, a motion was made by Jimmy Hornsby that one PTA be organized. This motion was seconded and passed by those attending. The next item of discussion was to decide on having a PTA affiliated with the state and national organization or just a local PTO. No decision was made on this as those voicing opinions felt a state of officers should be named before such decisions were made. A nominating committee was named to select a group of officers who were willing to serve. These names will be presented at the next meeting on February 2, at 7:00 p.m. Persons named to the committee include: Mrs. Patsy Meek, Mrs. Henrietta Grimes, Mrs. Janice McCall, Mrs. Annie McKinnon, Mrs. Miriam Bow-ers, and Mr. Dykes Rushing.

Arrested were Calvin Jerome Sasser and his wife Vivian Bragg Sasser. They were charged with receiving and concealing stolen property and Grand Larceny and 1st degree Burglary. Also arrested in the case was a juvenile whose name was not released and who was not jailed.

Another Truck Wrecks On 134

Pine logs were scattered on the highway and on the shoulder of the road last Thursday afternoon when the above loaded truck overturned while rounding a curve on Highway 134, two miles North of the Ino community. William Teague, of Andalusia, driving a D-on Lumber truck, suffered a bruised left shoulder and other injuries in the 1:30 accident. He was driving west on 134 when the one vehicle accident occurred. Mr. Bart Bowden was operating his bulldozer nearby when he heard a crash and saw the dust cloud created by the tumbling logs. He rushed to the scene, called the rescue squad and law enforcement. The highway was blocked for some time until logs could be moved.

This is the second wreck of its regular monthly meeting Friday night, January 30, at 7:00 p.m. at Holley's Restaurant in Elba. Guest speaker will be 1/Lt. George Bowdoin from the Alabama Military Academy. All members and interested persons are invited to attend.

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD

THE EFFECTS OF PENTECOST

It is thrilling to read Peter's sermon at Pentecost, especially if one reads also the account of his denial of the Lord. Peter along with the other apostles, apparently went into semi-hiding after the arrest of Jesus. Not long after, when he was denied the Lord and then went bitterly over his failure. We see a completely different individual in the second chapter of Acts, however. What caused the change? The answer is twofold.

First, Peter met the Risen Savior. Then the early believers of the Resurrection was the central theme of the Gospel. When Peter met Jesus after the Resurrection, the doubts that plagued him disappeared. Never again did he deny the Lord. He was totally committed to being a faithful follower of Jesus.

The second thing that made such a big difference in Peter was the Pentecostal experience. He had seen and experienced indisputable manifestation of the supernatural God. From that time on Peter operated in a new dimension. Not only did he dare to proclaim Christ boldly, but his word carried conviction and power as never before. How wonderful to see Peter used as God after Pentecost to add many lost people to the Body of Christ. Certainly one can quickly see that our work is not accomplished by might or power, but by the Spirit of the Lord.

There will be gospel singing at the Wallace Holmes Church of Brantley, beginning tomorrow night (Friday, January 30).

The singing will begin at 7:30, and will feature the Good News Gospel Singers from Paxton, Florida.

Everyone is invited, and the young people have a special invitation.

PRaise GOD: When he gave the altar call after that sermon, 3000 were saved! Revival was started because one so weak became so powerful when the Spirit of the Lord came on him.

Certainly God would not favor the Early Church and Simon Peter over us as we hunger and thirst after righteousness. We shall be filled with God's supernatural power is available to us today.

CUTEST COUPLE

On Thursday evening, January 22, 1976, 38 young ladies of EHS put on their makeup, fancy gowns, and their sweetest smiles in hopes of catching the judges eyes and being named "Miss Elba" for 1975-76.

Master of Ceremonies for this momentous occasion was the incomparable Sony Inman, who turned in one of the best performances ever as he announced the girls and did or said "little" things that helped keep them from being nervous.

We were honored to have delightful "d" inspirational entertainment provided by the Harris Temple Gospel Chorus. The students of EHS also showed their talents to help out. Miss Beverly Hargrove performed some bawdy and dance routines, Keith Ellison provided piano solos and singing with help from his brother, Terrence.

Miss Tammy Young performed a flute solo, aided by Andy Bullard; and Miss Lynn Hudson sang a great job of singing. We wish to give a special "thanks" to all these young people.

After all the "smoke" began to clear, the big moment arrived. The judges brought forward the small white envelope that would cause five young ladies to remember this night forever.

The winners were: 4th runner-up - Debbie Lee; 3rd runner-up - Sharon Coon; 2nd runner-up - Jana Lewis; 1st runner-up - Freida Davis; and last, but by no means least, the new "Miss Elba" for this new year - Miss Kay Jernigan!

Congratulations to Kay and all the girls, for we feel this was the best pageant ever at EHS, and should always be remembered as such in the years ahead.

We would also like to thank Mr. Foley, Mr. Powell, Mrs. McCollough, and the many teachers and parents who helped make this night a success for the people of Elba.

ANDALUSIA ROUTS TIGERS TIGERS 88-56

The Elba Tigers saw their hopes of an S.A.C. basketball title vanish last week when they were routed by the Andalusia Bulldogs, 88-56, in the quarterfinals of the annual South Alabama conference tournament.

Elba finally got on the board with 2:45 left in the first quarter when Larry Phillips hit a jumper from the corner. However, Andy's defense continued to bedevil the Tiger offense, and the Bulldogs owned a 21-5 lead after one quarter of play.

The Tigers continued to fall further and further behind in the final period, and Elba coach Mance Daughtry conceded defeat with 2:00 left when he emptied his bench. The Grimecks played one of their best quarters of the season in the fourth quarter as they outscored Elba 26-12 to claim the win, 73-45.

SEC GRID UP IN 1975

Southeastern Conference football attendance last season increased over the 1974 season average, but the totals were less because of three fewer home games, the SEC commissioner's office said last week.

Some 3.16 million people saw the 62 home games of the 10 SEC teams at a rate of 50,962 per game.

The 1974 average was 50,772 for 61 home games with a total attendance of 3.3 million.

Across the nation, college football attendance reached an all-time high of 31.6 million, an increase of nearly 2 percent.

The Big Ten led in total attendance and average, 3.58 million in 60 games at a rate of 59,658 per game. The SEC was second in total attendance and average, 3.16 million in 62 games at a rate of 50,962 per game.

The Big 8 was second in average with 53,054 in 47 games for the third total, 2.4 million.

The Pacific 8 average 38,813, the Southwest 38,302, the Atlantic Coast 35,320, and the Western 28,281.

Six SEC teams were in the top 20 in attendance: (5) Tennessee, 72,674; (9) Alabama, 62,226; (10) Florida, 61,777; (11) LSU, 61,462; (12) Auburn, 61,100; and (17) Kentucky, 57,935.

DOCTOR DRIBBLE

The S.A.C. Tourney continued last Saturday with Andalusia taking their third straight crown and fourth in the last five years.

New Hope 78, Kinston 60. New Hope (78): Berry 14, Downing 18, Ward 5, Foley 20, Green 10, Pearson 2, Kincaid 60. Sections 22, Hurko 6, Arcola 6, Wilkes 2, enterprise 41.

The final finalist has a physical experienced ball club with all five starters being graduating seniors. The Trojans however have the top junior and Bee teams in this area.

Red Level, and Eufaula were disappointing while Florida surprised a lot of people. Red Level picked by some to win it all struggled in with only one victory. They have a lot of talent plus they have a big center. They are a real good 1-A team that can compete with almost anyone in the area.

Opp came into the SAC cage event with the second best record in the tournament only to be routed by Florida in the second round. They are a sort scrappy ball club but are not as good as inere 14-3 record indicates.

Again this year Eufaula had to make the long trip south only once. When coach Butch Stafford joined the SAC three years ago everyone thought he would dominate the cage circuit, but in the last three tournaments they have won only one game. Eufaula is very young though and they are well coached. Coach Stafford brings his sophomore laden ball club to Elba February third.

Florida was the most surprising team in the tourney. The Wildcats were probably the strongest team on the boards in the tournament. Every time down two or three shots Florida can surprise some people come playoff time.

The Elba Tigers didn't have a chance to play in the 6-3 center averaged over twenty points and was the leading rebounder in both of Elba outings. Elba also received the sportsmanship trophy as a reward they surely deserved. Elba is a controlled, non-physical ball club that's not prone to argue with or intimidate the referees. Also coach Daughtry has become one of the best, most level headed coaches in this area. Congratulations to the S.A.C. champs.

LAY DIABETIC UNIT ORGANIZED

A Lay Diabetic Unit of Coffee County was organized on January 22. A most interesting group of 25 persons attended this meeting. Mrs. Adelle Smith from the Dothan Wire Lay Diabetic Unit was on hand to help the Coffee County group organize.

The group elected the following officers: Mrs. Minnie Medley, Chairman, Mrs. Shirley Simmons, Co-Chairman, and Mrs. Alma Koerner, Secretary-Treasurer. In addition to the elections, the group has made plans to meet at 7:00 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month at the County Extension office, New Brockton.

The first meeting will be March 3. Prior to the meeting the officers plan to get together to plan various programs. If you are interested in joining this Lay Diabetic Unit please feel free to meet with them in March. They need you and you need the unit.

NUTRITIOUS APPLES

Apples make delicious, nutritious snacks and desserts for your family. And, because of the bumper crop this season, apples are a good buy and easy on the food budget. Good care and proper storage will keep apples crisp and tasty for some time.

Store apples in plastic bags and keep them away from potatoes, onions or dairy products in the refrigerator. Apples will absorb odors from these foods.

Here are some more tips for enjoying apples raw or cooked.

Always wash your apples before eating. And, if you must peel apples, do so just before serving or cooking.

If peeled apples must stand before using, sprinkle with lemon, orange, pineapple juices or a commercial anti-darkening agent to prevent browning. Use sugar in small amounts when cooking to bring out flavor, not hide it. And to keep apples whole, add sugar at the beginning of the cooking period.

BAKING TIPS

If your breads, muffins, biscuits or other home-baked goods start getting too brown on top, but aren't done through, loosely cover them with a tent of aluminum foil. This will stop the browning, while the baking continues.

When putting two sheets of baking in the oven at the same time, stagger them on different shelves so that one is not directly above the other. Leave at least an inch between two pans on the same shelf. Otherwise the trapped heat will cause a "hot spot."

Death Claims Mrs. Mary Jane Griffin

Mrs. Mary Jane Griffin, age 41, died January 20 after a brief illness in St. Peter's Hospital in Olympia, Wash. Funeral services were conducted January 23 from the Science Mortuary in Olympia, Washington with Father Tracy officiating.

She is survived by her husband, Thomas Gerald Griffin, formerly of Elba, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Griffin, Rt. 2, Elba.
